You are invited to “Put Yourself in Her Shoes” at our annual fundraising luncheon on Monday 4 October 2010. Come and learn how microfinance is changing the lives of the poor and positively impacting their communities in the Philippines. Guest speakers are Connie Ridley, Director of Opportunity International Australia and Lyn Onesa, Director of TSPI, a partner of Opportunity Australia in the Philippines.

Opportunity International Australia provides small business loans and training for poor people in 25 developing countries across four continents. Opportunity Australia currently provides loans to more than one million clients. Women make up 94% of loan recipients, 97% of whom repay their loans in full and on time.
