

WIMARQ Networking Event

WIMARQ
Women In Mining & Resources Queensland

Putting energy into art

Santos and WIMARQ invite you to hear from an extraordinary woman challenging conventions in the art world.

Suhanya Raffel

Deputy Director (Curatorial and Collection Development),
Queensland Art Gallery (QAG)

Since joining the Gallery in 1994, Suhanya has been responsible for the development of the Gallery's contemporary Asian collections, profiling this work through exhibitions, lectures and writing.

She was the lead curator for QAG's 'Andy Warhol' exhibition (2007-08) and most recently curated 'The China Project' (2009), a set of three major exhibitions of contemporary Chinese art.

She has been a member of the curatorial team for the Asia Pacific Triennial of Contemporary Asian Art (APT) project since 1996 and was the lead curator for APT6 (2009).

We look forward to seeing you there.
